Media representatives took part in the monitoring. The monitoring was carried out at schools No.
177, 47 and 258 of Narimanov district of Baku based on the choice of media workers.
During the inspection, there was revealed a high percentage of attendance of pupils of primary an and senior classes (more than 95%). Monitoring Group also asked some questions concerning the organization of the education process lat these schools, and responded to questions taken from journalists.
In addition, plitnisi relanning rto carry out they weekly monitoring of pupils'd attendance of comprehensive schools on each district of Baku.