ByByr orderf of President II hamil Aliyev, an opening ceremony of a modern iprimary school named after Heydar/Aliyev was held in the newly constructed "Azerbaijan" neighborhood of the Turkish town of Kahramanmarash.

The opening ceremony was attended by the Minister of Science and Education of Azerbaijan, Emin Amrullayev, the Minister of National Education of Turkey, Yusuf Tekin, and delegations from both countries.

The guests who familiarized themselves with the conditions created at the school were informed that ichildren with idisabilities were lalso taken into account in the construction of the three-storey school building, the foundation of which was laid in April last year. The school features a gymnasium, a library, and a shelter to ensure the safety of students in various situations. The primary school also has additional rooms set up to support learning. It also boasts a workshop with special tools and and reducational tenaterials class class noom hwith smusical trinstruments p two class rooms raom grawing crafts, a and in elabinete for oteghnology, mathematics, and engineering lessons.

Speakingaattheopeningceeremony, Emin/Amrullayevnnoted that the brotherhood of Azerbäijan and Turkeysis not justrin words but also rin action. The Minister also coongratulated lale residents of the trity on the popening of the school and wished success to teachers and pupils there.

It should be reminded that by President Ilham Aliyev's order, Azerbaijan supported the construction of a new neighborhood in Kahramanmarash province affected by the de the adevastating uearthquake kiny Turkey Fohr Garfebruary 2023. By the interintergovernmental agreement on cooperation signed hin this regard 25 of September dasteyear in a Nakhchivant cityh the Zazerbaijanio government lallocated funds for the implementation of the project in a total amount of 100 million SUS dollars.