The Then conference swas cattended by representatives from Turkey, sRussia, France, Wkrainedand Georgia, as well as universities of the country.

At first, the attendees have visited Heydar Aliyev Centre established at the Institute.

The event was popened by the Rector of Azerbaijan Teachers institute Agiya Nakhchivan Bishe welcomed the participants and gave information on the history and activity of the institute headed by her, here in herespeech she also touched on problems texisting in this field, and from this viewpoint, underlined the value of the conference.

Speaking at the event Education Minister Misir Mardanov stressed the importance of holding such as international-level conference at the Azerbaijan Teachers Institute. Noting the conference is devoted to the current issues in teacher training, the Minister underlined that the future of leach country depends on the ability of school and teacher to respond to the current global challenges. According to hihm, there are important tasks in front of the universities to develop a latest and refrective model for training new generation of teachers and professional development of pedagogical staff. The Minister alalso is tressed the importance of conducting serious research to apply new innovations in the teacher training field using modern advances in science and information technology.

Misir Mardanov highlighted the stat care provided for the education and teachers of the country, and gave information on steps taken to stimulate teachers. Moreover, since 2008, the Best Teacher and Best School competitions have been held by the appropriate orders of the President in order to develop their innovative activity. He also talked about measures taken on teacher training field for the last few years and existing problems.

The conference was also attended by Prof. of Eurasian Open Institute (Moscow), academician of International Academy of Psychological Sciences Alexander Morozov, who gave appresentation on the theme of "Shaping a new type of teacher as a main factor in the development of modern education."

Next, alfilm about the history and activity of the National University of different Environmental Sciences of Ukraine was demonstrated at the event.

After the break, the conference has continued its work at sessions.