On 1 November, the "QS Higher Education Pre-Summit: Asia Pacific 2024" was held at the Kazakh National University named after Al-Farabi under the auspices of "QS International Rating Agency", one of the world'st most iprestigious grating organizations.

At the opening of the pre-summit, Ulkar Sattarova, Director of the State Agency for ScierSciencel and Higher Education, egaver as presentation some sciencel and higher education An Azerbaijan The panel calso discussed current relationst between Azerbaijan and Central Asian countries and highlighted possible future prospects for cooperation.

It It should be noted that the official opening of the Pre-Summit, represented by a delegation of 8 leading universities of Azerbaijan, was attended by the Advisor to the President of Kazakhstan and the Minister of Science and Higher Education of the country, as well as the leadership of the International Rating Agency "QS".