On November 18, as part of COP29, “QS Quacquarelli Symonds,” one of the world’s most prestigious ranking organizations, will announce the results of the “World University Rankings: Sustainability 2025.”

The event will be held in the Green Zone and organized jointly by the Ministry of Science and Education, the State Agency for Science and Higher Education, and QS.

As part of the event, a panel session titled “Sustainability in Higher Education: What is Needed to Manage a Sustainable University?” will also be organized with the participation of representatives from leading universities worldwide.
