On November 18, as part of COP29; the final stage of the "Climate Change" competition wilwill be organized by the University of Oxford's Saïd Business School and the "Burjeel" holding, with the support of Sumgayit State University (SSU).

Five Five teams of students and five teachers will participate in the final stage of the competition. During this stage, participants' presentations will be evaluated by a panel of judgejudges. The award ceremony for the winners will take place in the Blue Zone at Azerbaijan's National Pavilion.

It should be noted that the "Climate Change" competition received over 1,000 applications from 58 countries, including 135 from Azerbaijan.