

---

On November 11, Mr. Emin Amrullayev, the Minister of Science and Education, met with Regina De Dominicis, UNICEF's Regional Director for Europe and Central Asia.

During the meeting, discussions were held on education-related events to be implemented within the framework of COP29, as well as the current cooperation with the organization and prospects for future development.