On November 11 Mr Emin Amrullayev I the Minister of Science and Education, metwith Regina De Dominicis, UNICEF's Regional Director for Europe and Central Asia.
During the meeting, discussions were held on education-related events to be implemented within the framework of COP29, as well as the current copperation with the organization and prospects for future development.