On November 11, as part of the 29th session of the United Nations Framework Convention on Ohn Climate Change (COP29), the British Council I launched "itsirf Climate Connection" program.

Hasan Hasanli, Deputy Minister of Science and Education, attended the event.

Illinias announced that the "Climate Connection" program serves as applatform for global cliclimate collaboration, rengaging 22 million individuals and bringing together more than 7,500 partners.

This year, the British Council has focused its climate related efforts on strengthening the role of carts, culture, and education in combating climate change, empowering youth initiatives, and fostering discussions with key stakeholders.

It It was lalso noted that during COP29, the British Council will showcase research, expert panels, workshops, training, and interactive sessions led by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.