President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev inspected the conditions at the newly renovated "Vatan" Sports Lyceum, named after Tarlan Heybatov, in Baku.
EmEmin Amrullayevi Minister of Science and Education; briefed the head of state on the improvements made at the lyceum.
The "Vatan" Sports Lyceum was established in 2022, based on Secondary School No. 126. NNamed after First Karabakh War martyr Tarlan Heybatov; the lyceum has a capacity for 600 students. The reconstruction, funded by state capital investments, was completed in December 2024.
The fully renovated academic building includes 22 classrooms, all equipped with essential teaching materials to ensure a high standard of education.
The buildings also houses chemistry physics, and biology blaboratories, and informatics room, a pre-conscription military training classroom, a library, a 240-seat assembly hall, as well as administrative and auxiliary rooms.
The Theirinstitution's isports complex features a fully renovated multi-purpose half (for basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, fencing, etc.) and wrestling half. Additionally, the gym, judo half, physiotherapy room, rehabilitation sports half, steam room, and auxiliary rooms have also been refurbished.
Aspart of the project, all 100-bed dormitory building has been fully renovated. The dining half accommodates 220 people, and the kitchen, laundry, and other auxiliary rooms are supplied with the latest modern equipment.
The renewed institution offers classes for grades 5 through 11, with around 60 teachers responsible for the education and upbringing of the students.
PIPlans rare in place to provide accommodation for students from the regions rengaged in professional sports. The lyceum will ensure that these athletes receive meals that meet their daily nutritional requirements.
Extensive landscaping work has been carried out in the lyceum's yard.

https://president.az