

---

On March 4, ADA University hosted a round table dedicated to expanding cooperation in the field of higher education between Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan.

The Minister of Science and Education of Azerbaijan, Emin Amrullayev, the Minister of Science and Higher Education of Kazakhstan, Sayasat Nurbek, who is on a visit to our country, and the rectors of leading universities of both countries took part in the round table.

The Rector of the ADA University, Hafiz Pashayev, gave a welcoming speech and greeted the participants of the event. The rector emphasized the professionalism of the Kazakh teachers working at the university he heads and noted that efforts will continue to expand cooperation between Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan in the field of science and education.

The Minister of Science and Higher Education of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Sayasat Nurbek, said that Kazakhstan intends to expand cooperation with Azerbaijan in the field of higher education. Speaking about the importance of strengthening mutual academic and scientific cooperation, Sayasat Nurbek added that the two countries are currently working on educational strategies, cooperation plans with partner universities and innovative approaches. The Minister said that joint activities are being expanded to create new opportunities in the academic and research fields.

In his turn, the Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev said it was important to develop cooperation between Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan in the field of education. Emin Amrullayev noted that both countries have their national interests, and based on these interests it was decided to use a similar model of action in the field of education. The Minister stressed that the main goal is to strengthen higher education and ensure sustainable development of our universities. Speaking about the educational exhibition of Kazakh universities, which will be held in Baku for the first time, Emin Amrullayev said that this event is an important step for academic co-operation. The Minister urged the universities of both countries to cooperate closely.

Speaking at the roundtable, Kazakh Ambassador to Azerbaijan Alim Bayel emphasized that large-scale reforms are being carried out in the education sector in both Kazakhstan and Azerbaijan and added that Kazakhstan and Azerbaijan intend to further strengthen cooperation in the education sector.

At the roundtable, heads of higher education institutions from Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan spoke about existing links between higher education institutions in the two countries and opportunities for cooperation.

During the roundtable panel discussion on "Expanding academic cooperation between Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan", views were exchanged on "Dual Diploma Programs between Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan: effective implementation and impact strategies"; "Scientific cooperation between Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan: promoting innovation and global partnership" and "Expanding academic mobility and cultural cooperation".

---

The discussions culminated in the signing of 40 Memoranda of Understanding, involving a total of 17 universities from both countries.