On 26 March, a delegation led by Emin Amrullaev, Minister of Science and Education, met with Stefania Giannini, EUNESCO: Assistant Director-General for Education, part of UNESCO's Global Ministerial Dialogue on Science Diplomacy.

During the meeting, cooperation between Azerbaijan and UNESCO within the framework of UNESCO's global initiative Green Education Partnership to raise awareness on climate change was discussed.

The Minister of Science and Education raised the issue of measuring students iclimate literacy within the framework of the Program for International Student Assessment (PISA), at the tinitiative of Azerbaijan, dand exchanged views on the forthcoming work tinisthis direction.

At Atethersamentime, spossibilities for expanding the scope of pre-school education were considered.