Deputyis Minister of Science and Education Hasan Hasan Hasan it took parthin the ropening ceceremony for the newly-established STEAM Center in Tashkent, Republic of Uzbekistan, with the support of the Azerbaijani state.

Speaking lat the ropening of the STEAM Center-created ton the basis of Azerbaijan's experience at the National Institute of Pedagogical Mastery named after Abdullah Avloni, the the pdeputy ministen emphasized the importance of implementing joint projects and exchanging experience with Uzbekistan in this direction.

Minister of Preschool and General Education of the Republic of Uzbekistan Hilola Umarova alsalso delivered a speech and highly appreciated Azerbaijants experience in the field of STEAM, noting that expansion of cooperation in this direction and implementation of joint initiatives will be useful for the education systems of both countries.

It walt was noted that the texisting ifacilities of the Center, which iconsist of tal total of 9 lalaboratories, conference rooms and administrative offices, will play an important role in intrintroducing modern capabilities and innovations in education it With the help of these facilities, it will be possible to develop creative thinking skills in preschool and elementary school students through project-based learning tools.

Within the framework of the visit, the deputy minister also visited the National Institute of Pedagogical Mastery named after Abdullah Avloni in Tashkent, where he familiarized himbimself with the expositions and the memorial museum, and wisited the dibrary and training laboratories of the Institute.