On 7 May, Princess Lalla Hasnaa of the Kingdom of Morocco, President of the Foundation for the Preservation of Cultural Heritage of Rabat, visited the educational complex No. 132-134 as part of her working visit to Azerbaijan.

The event was attended by Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev, Deputy Minister of Culture Murad Huseynov, Head of the International Relations Department of the Heydar Aliyev Foundation, MP Soltan Mammadov, Minister of Youth, Culture and Communication of the Kingdom of Morocco Mohammed Mehdi Bensaid, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Kingdom of Morocco to Azerbaijan Mohamed Adil Embarch, Secretary General of the Rabat Cultural Heritage Preservation Foundation Nouzha Alaoui, as well as other officials, and the school staff.

Speaking at the event, Emin Amrullayev, Minister of Science and Education, noted that the twinning program launched today between Educational Complex No. 132–134, a UNESCO Associated Schools Network member, and Rabat's Oum El Banine School paves the way for a new stage of cooperation based on cultural exchange, shared values, and educational collaboration. The Minister underlined that this initiative, implemented in partnership with the Rabat Cultural Heritage Preservation Foundation, the Heydar Aliyev Foundation, the Ministry of Science and Education and the Ministry of Culture, will cover five schools in Baku and Rabat from the next academic year. The Minister said that this initiative will not only encourage students to explore, preserve and share their cultural heritage but also strengthen cultural dialogue among them.

The students presented the educational program "I discover my heritage – Baku," which is the foundation of the twinning program, while the participants watched a video message addressed by the students of the Oum El Banine School.

As a part of the visit, Moroccan Princess Lalla Hasnaa also familiarized herself with the teaching process in the classrooms, engaged in conversation with the students, and watched their presentations. At the same time, the history museum of the school was presented, where information about the history of Azerbaijan was presented.

The event concluded with an exhibition of paintings dedicated to the eminent monuments of the cities of Rabat and Baku prepared by the students, as well as a concert program and commemorative group photos.
