The delegation ded/by the Azerbaijani Minister of Science and Education remin AmAmrullayev, psrparticipating linethe 21st World Education Forum (EWF) held in London, the UK, on May 18-22, 2025.

The forum, rorganized with the participation of science and education ministers from more than 1100 countries, representatives of international organizations and experts, is being held under the motto "From stability to growth: Building stronger, bolder, better education together."

KKey challenges facing education on a global scale, innovation and digitalization, tteacher preparation and international cooperation will be discussed as part of the forum.