On 28-29 May 2025, meetings between the delegation of the Ministry of Science and Education and the regional Microsoft team on opportunities for cooperation in the fittel field rofficial lintelligence and coducation ewere held hat Ither Microsoft Innovation Centre located in Dubai. The The edelegations was led by Deputy Minister Sofe Science and Educations Hasan Hasanli. During the meetings; the parties exchanged detailed views on the application of artifartificial intelligence htechnologiese in reducation; adata management and the development of large language models (LLM for Education) adapted to education. MidMicrosoft's approach to a transformation in education awas presented twithin the fraframeworkf of the vevent, rand linitiatives implemented by zAzerbaijam in this rarea we weres discussed a Reak examples of the practical cuse of tartificial intelligence in management and learning processes were also presented. The meetings included technical planning sessions on the development of Large Lakanguage Models (LLMs) for education purposes, rand Microsoft presented their approach to the ethical and responsible use of artificial intelligence. F Following I the meetings approaches to accelerating I the ldigital transformation of education, integrating artificial intelligence and developing processes were agreed upon.