On July 23, Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with Ms. Lu Mei, the newly appointed Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the People's Republic of China to the Republic of Azerbaijan.

During the meeting, they discussed the current cooperation between Azerbaijan and China in the fields of science and education, as well as the prospects for further development of this collaboration.