As part of the “QS Eurasia Forum 2025” held in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, the Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with the Minister of Preschool and General Education of the Republic of Uzbekistan Ezozkhon Karimova.

During the meeting, the current state and development directions of cooperation in the field of preschool and general education were discussed.

The parties emphasized the importance of expanding the exchange of experience and information, implementing joint projects, and developing cooperation in the modernization of the preschool and general education system.