Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev delivered a speech at the QS Eurasia Forum, organized by the Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) global rating agency and hosted by the University of Central Asia in Tashkent, Uzbekistan.

During the speech, information was provided on internationalization and research opportunities in our country, including measures taken to increase the global competitiveness of higher education institutions.

In addition, a "round table" was organized within the framework of the forum with the participation of ministers and deputy ministers in the relevant fields, as well as the leadership of leading universities.

During the "round table", discussions were held on topics such as institutional performance indicators of higher education institutions, employment outcomes, and sustainability in higher education.
It should be noted that several leading higher education institutions of Azerbaijan are also represented at the forum.
