On 2 December, Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with Besart Kadia, Albania's ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Azerbaijan.

During the meeting, the parties discussed current cooperation and opportunities for development in the field of science and education.