On February 27, Deputy Minister of Science and Education Mr. Hasan Hasanli met with Celile Eren Ökten, Deputy Minister of National Education of the Republic of Türkiye.

During the meeting, the parties discussed the current state of cooperation and prospects for its development in the field of education between the two countries.