On November 25, Azerbaijan's Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with Li Nan, Chairman of the Council and Secretary of the Party Committee of Beijing University of Chemical Technology of the People's Republic of China.

The meeting focused on existing ties between Beijing University of Chemical Technology and higher education institutions of Azerbaijan, particularly opportunities to expand cooperation within the framework of ongoing international dual-degree programs.