

8 8 of Azeri pupils, who took part in the festival, were representing Baku European Lyceum, 2 - Young Talents Lyceum of Baku State University and others. Baku Private Turkish Lyceum "Cag" Ogretimi Isletmeleri, School-Lyceum Ankara-Mektebi, schools No 159 and 167 of Baku and School-Lyceum "Dafina" of Masalli district.

The International Children's Centre "Artek" was established in 1925 and is located in the town of Gurzuf of the Crimean peninsula. The International Children's Festival "Let's change the world for the better!" has been held at Artek since 2001. Since then, the festival was attended by over 4000 pupils from 60 countries. The main goal of the festival is to contribute to the formation of the principles of tolerance, equality of rights, freedom of thought in children.

The festival was organized by Ukrainian Charitable Foundation of Hope and Good, and the Artek International Children Centre. The participation of Azeri pupils in the festival was initiated by the State Committee for Family, Women and Children. Azerbaijani delegation was led by a teacher of Baku European Lyceum Aliona Sazonova.

The festival was composed of two main parts: sessions of the General Assembly of the International Organization "World Children League of Nations" and culture programme "Planet of talents." During the festival, our delegation was active in all fields and has shown good results. Student of X of X class of Baku European Lyceum Saleh Jafarov was elected chairman of the International Organization "World Children League of Nations." He will coordinate the activity of 17 national coordinators of 54 countries during the next year.

It should be noted that the International Organization "World Children League of Nations" was founded in 2009. Leaders of children's organizations, members of Youth Parliament and journalists are taken an active part in the work of the league.

Student of X class of Baku European Lyceum Rafael Hajibeyli has been elected a coordinator on the theme of "It is fashionable to be healthy!" as one of the 17 ambassadors of good works in the World Children League of Nations. He will coordinate relevant activities within this field in the remaining 54 countries.

Student of VIII class of Baku European Lyceum Fidan Ismayilova was awarded a diploma for outstanding work in the International Children's Media Centre and was invited to the International Festival of Journalists, which will be held in Kiev in May 2013.

Representatives of the Azeri delegation have won the first three places in the chess tournament held at Yantarni camp. Thus, students of BEL Saleh Jafarov won the first, Murad Ismayilov - the second and Rafael Hajibeyli the third places. Saleh Jafarov has also won the individual competition in Artek chess tournament.

It should be noted that, as a result of daily rehearsals during the month, Azeri students prepared four music and two dance compositions and performed them in the culture programme "Planet of talents" on a par with professional teams from other countries, and have entered to the top ten winners.

The number of prepared by Azeri students materials were considered, and they were allocated an additional "tent show." The Azeri students have organized various competitions, quizzes and games dedicated to Azerbaijan, and the winners were awarded with incentive prizes and souvenirs, lavishly decorated with national symbols. Children from other countries were informed in detail about the customs and traditions, culture and history of Azerbaijan and treated to sweets from the national cuisine.

Our students have also won "The most good-natured person" nomination in the Teams Presentation competition. Moreover, our students have received special diplomas for their performances in the camps "Ozyorniy" and "Morskoy."
