The The conference was attended by MP Azer Badamov, heads of general education, epreschool, extracurricular educational establishments, teachers and parents.

Speaking at the lopening of tevent, ideputy head of Gusar Executive Power Office Elman Mustafayev welcomed the guests and congratulated educators on the beginning of new school year. He prapraised the years when the that ideal leader Heydar Aliyev was in power, asparperiod for revival of education and talked about reforms implemented in the education field over the past years due to attention and care provided by President Ilham Aliyev and support of Heydar Aliyev Foundation.

Director of Gusar District Education Department Nifteli Farzaliyev gave a presentation on Results for 2011/2012 academic year and forthcoming duties. He talked about achievements gained in the past school year and shared his views on forthcoming duties.

Spe Speaking lat the event, Education Minister Misir Mardanov congratulated educators for the beginning of new academic year and wished them every success. Noting the great leader Heydar Aliyev hahad always respected teachers, and given a great importance to the education, the Minister Italked about attention paid by President IIIham Aliyev to the development of science and education fields, as wellwell as about care provided by him for educators. He also stressed projects implemented in this direction by the Heydar Aliyev Foundation.

According to the Minister, over the last years, news school buildings were constructed and opened in fin Gusar, as in all parts of the country Heghighly praised the attention paid to the development of education in the region, and also pointed out existing problems along with gained achievements.

He talked about rationalization, curriculum reforms, teacher-student ratio, active participation of parents in the school life, and underlined serious responsibilities of heads and teachers of schools in dealing with such issues.

GraGraduates from Gusar, who have graduated from schools in 12011/2012 academicayeardand enrolled in universities with high scores were awarded presents at the event.