

---

The meeting was devoted to the accreditation results of school No 225 of Baku, physical-mathematical and informatics school-lyceum No 27 named after I. Mammadov of Ganja, and school No.10 of Mingachevir.

Speaking at the opening of the meeting, Education Minister Misir Mardanov underlined the importance of accreditation held at general education establishments in improving activity levels of schools and the quality of education.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on school No.225 of Baku Fikrat Khalilov gave information on the results of accreditation held at the school. He talked about the organization of teaching process, its teaching staff and students, graduate admissions statistics, etc.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on school-lyceum named after I. Mammadov No.27 of Ganja Novruz Damirov talked about inspection held at the school. He gave information on the indicators of lyceum activities, its teaching staff, material and technical base, and compliance indicators of school's activity with its status.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on school No. 10 of Mingachevir, head of Accreditation Department of the Ministry Habib Zarbaliyev gave information about the activity of the school, students' knowledge level, material and technical supply of the school. He also talked about the conditions created for the effective organization of the teaching process, the content of education, graduate admissions statistics, as well as suggestions made by the Accreditation Commission.

Further, questions taken from the meeting attendees were answered.

Education Minister Misir Mardanov shared his views regarding forthcoming challenges of schools' accreditation and gave his relevant recommendations.

At the end of the meeting, the activity of school No.225 of Baku, school-lyceum No.27 named after I. Mammadov of Ganja and school No.10 of Mingachevir was assessed as "satisfactory" and made a decision on their accreditation.