The submission of documents will last until 15 August 2013.

An individual interview will be held with all candidates, whose documents will be officially accepted by the Ministry of Education during this period of time. All candidates will be informed about the final decision (positive or negative)

Prior to 10 July 2013, 274 candidates submitted their documents to the Ministry of Education.