Information about the time of text examination and "Memo" for participants have been sent to the personal page of each contestant.

The exam for Azeri language and literature teaching job will be held on 25 July. 2589 candidates are taking part in the exam for 296 vacant positions in this subject.

The test exams will take place in the main building of Azerbaijan State Economic University located in 6 Istiglaliyyat St, Baku.

The test exam will last 1 hour. During this period of time, the candidate should answer a total of 35 questions, including 25 questions covering the general education program on specialty, 5 on logic and 5 on subject teaching methods and teaching strategies. After the completion of the exam the number of correct answers will be displayed on the monitor.

The examination process will be recorded. Candidate, who would violate the rules (use of mobile phone, additional resources, other candidates' monitor, obstruct the exam), will be expelled from the exam and its results will be cancelled.

Candidates, who successfully pass test exams, will be interviewing from 12 to 16 August 2013. They will receive information at their personal page in this regard. The interview program is available on the "Teachers recruitment" page of the Ministry's official website.
