

---

The Minister of Education has handed over Ramiz Askerov an award "Glories." Having congratulated the well-known scientific philologist, the minister has wished it successes in the further activity. He spoke about merits of Ramiz Askerov in a development of education and sciences of Azerbaijan and has expressed confidence that, R. Askerov after that will continue with success the effective activity.

Doctor of philology Ramiz Askerov has expressed deep gratitude to the President of the country for so appreciation of its activity. He has noticed that will use the best efforts for the sake of the further development of education, a science and publicism in Azerbaijan.

Let's notice, that Ramiz Askerov was born on January 10th, 1954 in a teacher's family, in village Azizbekov (Qarachanta) area Amasiya of the Western Azerbaijan. In 1971 has left school with a gold medal. In 1972 has arrived on faculty of journalism of the Baku State University. With 1975 as the successful student was trained at faculty of journalism of Lomonosov Moscow State University and has ended training in 1978 year.

In 1978-1983 he has worked in the State Committee Television and Radio of Transfers of Azerbaijan. In 1983-1987 worked in the Society of Friendship and a cultural contact of Azerbaijan with the Foreign States. There was the editor-in-chief of magazine "Azerbaijan today" published on seven languages (Azerbaijani, Russian, English, French, German, Turkish, Arabian, Persian). In 1988-1991 worked as the editor-in-chief of the newspaper "Odlar Yurdu".

Since 2002 he works at the Baku State University. In 2012 has been selected as a head of department "Literature of the Turkish People". The author of 10 monographs and about 200 scientific articles.

According to the decree of the President of the Azerbaijan Republic dated July 21st, 2010 he has been awarded an honorary title "Honored journalist".