Main goal in organization of Summer School to be lasted till September 13; is to educate young perpersonnel for realization of lactions plan iderived from one of strategical directions and support in implementation of State Strategy on development of education in Azerbaijan through determination of young leaders, graduates who finished his study on this sphere and is engaged in study.

To Topics like deducation policy in the form of training, presentation, discussion, debate and EEDx, stratstrategidal planning tind study, management and assessment of reducational projects, role of the researches rine ducation, educational management, assessment and monitoring, school management and leadership, sinnovative approaches aim teachers education and application for information-communication technologies in education, will be incorporated within framework of Summer School.

Participants of Summer School selected via contest, consist of the graduates of the universities of AzAzerbaijan Republic and foreign country, also the youth who have skills to be acquainted with State Strategy on development of education in Azerbaijan Republic, introduce, research, present and higher level communication.

Several representatives, local and international education experts, public figures, representatives of business and media structures and many other specialists took part in Summer School as trainer and speaker.