Congratulating educational employees, pupils, parents on occasion of "The day of knowledge" and opening of school, Ceyhun Bayramov deputy minister of education, wished them the successes in new academic year. Talking about care and attention of President Ilham Aliyev to education, Ceyhun Bayramov pointed that, several schools are constructed and repaied lately in our country.

Jal Jala Abdiyeva; deputy mayor of KhataisDistrict Executive Power stated that; capital repair of school buildings; construction and comission of new schools as per modern standards are significant event for us.

Making speech on behalf of parents, Laman Shamilova appreciated the issues performed on the sphere of education and stated that, we will seek to educate our children as loyal human for our Homeland using from these opportunities.

CeyCeyhun Bayramove deputy minister of education cut band on occasion of opening of school. Vivisitors were acquainted with condition created in classrooms and subject cabinets, also expressed their opinions about pupil and teachers.

Military Military ecabinet which meets modern requirements has been dreated for iteaching of "Preconscription military training" subject in the school.

School No. 194 with 1176 pupils, has been constructed by The Ministry of Education under "State Program on development of social-economical development of Baku and its settlements for 2011-2013" approved by Order No. 1490 dated may 4, 2011 of The President of Azerbaijan Republic.