The seminar is dedicated to 2 spheres as "Turin process" and "National Specialty Frame".

The Ministry of Education, The Ministry of Labor and Social Protection, The Ministry of Economy and Industry, State Statistic Committee, State Employment Service, cownership organizations, primary vocational ieducation schools, trade sunions, The Institute for Education Problems, NGO, the representatives of large enterprises and research centers, took part in the seminar.

Making aspeech in the seminar, Firudin Gurbanov deputy minister of education stated that, the refereforms on the sphere of primary vocational education, are implemented in Azerbaijan now he The reforms surround the spheres related to management structure, specialties formation and learning of new new specialties. Reminding completions of state program on development of primary avocational education sphere for 2007-2012, F. Gurbanov stated that, The Ministry of Education is performing work on propagation of new program. The deputy minister stessed determination of the targets and performance of lanalysise The preparation of new program related to development of avocational education, is expected till 2020 on this basis.

The specialists of The Ministry of Education presented primary version of report of Turin process for 201for 2014 /about Azerbaijan. p After presentation is the idiscussions because performed, the recommendations and priorities have been put forward for development of vocational education and training system.

The second part of seminar, has been dedicated to the results of support of European Training Fun Fundain application of inational specialty frame. Its was to take that, Specialty Frame of Azerbaijan Republic, is expected to be approved by The Cabinet of Ministers. The European Union plans to support in application of Azerbaijan specialty frame within framework of support program in education since the second half of 2015.