

---

Making a speech in the opening ceremony of scientific festival organized for the first time in our country, Akif Alizada, the president of The National Academy of Sciences, pointed that this scientific training to be lasted for 2 days will keep significant place in agitation of scientific achievements. Academy's leader informed about science's development and the priorities.

Ali Abbasov, minister of communication and higher technologies stressed that, science is a great and very important sphere. According to his speech, today there is a great need for scientific development of private sector, private sector looks forward for higher competent and talented personnel from science institutions.

Delivering the greetings of Mikayil Jabbarov, minister of education to event's participants, Firudin Gurbanov deputy minister of education evaluated organization of Baku Science Festival in "The year of industry" as significant event. He pointed that, core mission of festival is to agitate modern scientific knowledges, involve the youth in scientific action, increase the interests to the studies, create dialogue between science and community.

Stressing vital importance of the technologies in our life in modern time, the deputy minister pointed rapid growing of demand for the persons who have higher intellect. Firudin Gurbanov stated that, education system actively participates in amplification of science's personnel potential. The education system is core circle in creation of both of production and science sphere' potential.

Generally, 8 scientific excursions have been organized to Azerbaijan history, Archeology and Ethnography museums on the directions incorporated in the program on the first day of festival to be lasted for 2 days. Also, The events have been organized in the several structures of The National Academy of Sciences, as well as higher education institutions, the secondary schools no. 6323 and 1132-134 of the capital within framework of festival's program. The demonstration of the exhibits that consist of the invents of our country's scientists, interesting discussions and entertaining science shows, are envisaged on the second day of festival.