The state officials, public figures and media representatives together with SABAH groups' students of the universities, took parthin therforum. Therforum lasted for two days, made interesting moments for the participants through different discussion and debates, master class and contests. These moments have been comprehensively described in the video chronology dedicated to the first SABAH forum.

Madaster classes held in fdifferent panels and hard discussion also funny; intellectual contests where SSABAH students take part, are talked in the video chronology, where wish and desires of the participants are reflected under condition of dialogue and interesting exchange of opinions.

Video chronology dedicated to the first SABAH forum