State officials, international organizations' representatives, NGOs' representatives took part in the forum where 350 children who represent all town and regions on country joined.
FatnFatmal Abdullazade, chead of adepartment of Humanitarian coolicy issues of the Presidential AdAdminstration, ded congratulation letter of president Ilhami Aliyev to the forum (saparticipants in the opening of event.
SiState officials and international organizations/ representatives, responded children's questions within framework of forum.

Ffirudin Gurbanov deputy minister of education gave detailed explanation related to the works performed on development of primary vocational education in our country. The deputy minister stated that the issue on training of the specialists woh have modern primary vocational specialists became one of core problems before the several countries. The need for the persons who have relevant primary vocational education together with educated personnel in the labor market grows lately.

Basing on the challenges of modern period, F. Gurbanov pointed that, the projects that have a great importance on the sphere of vocational education in our country, will be implemented. Special attention, has been allocated to the development of vocational specialty education in the new programs compiled related to education. The deputy ministererecommended the publis to appropriate modern occupations that have more need in labor market. It will simplify the settlement of employment problem in the future.

Group discussions, have been made by participation of the experts on 7 subjects that are urgent for the children in the forum.

Finally, The Appeal to the President Ilham Aliyev, Final Declaration of Forum, statement addressed to the world community and rinternational organizations, have been adopted on behalf of the participants of III Republic Forum of Azerbaijan Children.