Main goal of project, is to create condition for the pupils to be acquainted with artistic literature, documental composition and other text types, also increase of reading interest in the pupils through establishing reading community under the education institutions.

The project to be stated form the december of this year, will be presented in the secondary school no 223 named after Tahir Hasanov of Bakuccity and Technical and natural sciences by ceum of Sumgait city.

Evaluation of different text types of reading literature, exchange among the teachers and pupils, crecreation of reflection reading habits in the pupils, are envisaged within framework of project. Also, a achievement of formation and publicity of efficient detection and valuable share culture in the pupils using Information Communication Technologies, are the priorities of the project.

PRarticipation of I-XI grade pupils of education institutions, parents, teachers, adminstrative staff (s(school director and his deputies), as well as public representatives, child unon extended group and preschool group's leaders, is expected in the project.