NeNew initiative of "BP-Azerbaijan" surrounded up to 200 upper grade pupils selected from the secondary schools of Baku.
Inhititatve invloved the pubils of 8110 th grade who are interested in technical subjects and have higher potential, is implemented by "Development of Young Engineers" Public Union.
By By purpose to support the pupils to select their future career directions within framework of initinitiative, several trainings have been conducted. Favourable conditions has been created for the participants to obtain wide information on experience and knowledges of professional engineers, also info information to a the opportunities to a the sphere of lengineering in projects where IBP is operator in Azerbaijan in the semnars.
The program of seminars consisted of the presentations on engineering specialties, interesting talks on the careers of BP's experienced engineers, also special psyhological and capability tests for the participants.
Afternopmpletion tofetherseminars, all participants have been awarded the recitificates most successful pupils with the prizes.