

---

Conference hosted by Lithuania Council of Universities and Vilnius Applied Sciences University, has been dedicated to the topic "How to ensure quality in the higher education".

Af Afgan Abdullayev, senior consultant of sector of Licensing and Accreditation of The Ministry of Education, made a speech "About transparency and report issues in the provision of quality" in the event.

More than 230 representatives who represented 95 universities and educational organizations of Europe and USA, took part in the conference.

Conference's participants discussed methods and mechanisms of quality assurance in the higher education. Exchange of opinion has been made around the issues like quality and quality assurance, quality assurance and quality culture, European standards in the quality assurance, quality in the double education programs, globalization and quality assurance, quality collaboration with the institutions (employers), essence of quality assurance in the professional higher education in the student-oriented training.

Ar Andreas Orfanides, president of European Higher Education Institutions Association, Rimantas Vaivaitkus, deputy minister of education and science of Lithuania, Gintautas Brajunas, rector of Vilnius Applied Sciences University, Mario Keló, director of European Higher Education Quality Assurance Association (EHEQA), Klara Engels-Pereny, higher education expert of European Council made a speech in the conference.

Also, presentation of inquiry book named "Internal Quality Assurance in the Higher Education" was held in the conference. Luchien Bollaert, author of book, member of Management Group (ECA) of European Accreditation Consortium and Netherlands Accreditation Community, informed about book.