

---

Rahman Mammadov, head of department on work with Humanitarian political issues and public organizations of Supreme Assembly Apparatus of Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic greeted conference's participants on behalf of chairman of Supreme Assembly in the plenary session of conference jointly organized by The Ministry of Education, The Institute for Educational Problems and Nakhchivan Teachers Institute.

Deputy head stated in his speech that, consecutive actions are performed on the direction of education in the Nakhchivan.

"State Program on involvement of disabled children in the education in the Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic" accelerated the works on this direction. By purpose to increase visibility and efficiency of teaching, formation of virtual teaching environment in the educational institutions, application of electronic education in the Autonomous Republic, order "About additional actions related to organization of electronic education in the educational institutions of Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic signed by chairman of Supreme Assembly, allowed enlargement of interactive relationships between the museums and educational institutions in the process of topics' teaching related to Azerbaijan history and culture.

Along with, Knowledge Fund has been established in Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic, also awards on science, technique, architecture, culture and literature have been organized.

Making a speech on the topic "State Strategy on development of education and the priorities before education system in the Azerbaijan Republic" Firudin Gurbanov, deputy minister of education Azerbaijan Republic, talked about successful continuation of educational strategy assigned by national leader Heydar Aliyev, also further contributions of State Strategy approved by order dated October 24, 2013 of The President of Azerbaijan Republic to education's progress. Deputy minister pointed that, issues performed on the direction of delivering of national education in the level that will meet world standards and demand for human capital, also commissioning of several modern preschool education institution and the secondary school by Heydar Aliyev Fund, have significant importance.

Expressing opinions about realization of State Strategy, F. Gurbanov stated that, strategy allows formation of competent learners who ensure appropriation of educational content, responsible, transparent, efficient cleaning and management mechanisms according to the results in the education, also educational infrastructure which is appropriate to modern requirements and ensures lifelong education. This document also allows reconstruction of educational infrastructure according to perspective development conception of Azerbaijan, also formation of economy and information community based on the knowledges in the country. The Ministry of Education prefers achievement of the targets envisaged on the direction of execution of State Strategy within framework of collaboration with all segments of community.

Saleh Magerramov, rector of Nakhchivan State University made a report on the topic "Bologna process: priorities before Nakhchivan State University". He stated that, our university support in the secondary educational institutions functioning in the Autonomous Republic for passing to Bologna process along with performing the issues on the direction of full application of Bologna system, creation of teaching according to credit system, teacher-student mobility, establishment of electronic educational network.

Gulu Novruzov, director of The Institute for Educational Problems of Azerbaijan Republic, comprehensively informed about main priorities before the reforms implemented on the sphere of education in our country, content change on the teaching process, pedagogical staff training, transition from traditional methods to teaching methods, also importance of appropriation and application of international experience in his report on the topic "Way to new targets- modern school and innovative teacher in the education".

Academician Ismayil Hajiyeve, chairman of Nakhchivan Branch of Azerbaijan National Academy of Sciences talked about interactions of science and education and parallel development directions, crucial role of higher educational institutions in scientific staff training process in the region. Oruj Hasanli, rector of Nakhchivan Teachers Institute made a report on the topic "Thought-oriented curriculum and vision to future”, Davud Ibrahimoglu, collaborator of Istanbul Asanyurd University “Positive thinking and appropriate learning of brain”, Farahim Sadigov, professor of Baku Business University “education in Czech Republic which is homeland of Y.A. Komenski, foudner of pedagogical science” in the plenary session.

---

8 section session have been conducted in two- day international scientific conference.