Involvement of student volunteers in the organization of I European Games to be held from june 12 to june 28 in the Baku and other related issues have been discussed in the meeting.

Sistressing historidal importance of European Games to be organized in the Azerbaijan Mikayil Jabbarov minister of education stated that, main part of successful organization of the games belong to the the volunteers. Students have a special role related to this treatter involvement of the student volunteers in organization of large-scale events in the different countries of world and coordinator of this work play is gnificant role. Representing public interests, this activity is useful for the students to develop their skills, obtain work experience, be acquainted with new people.

MilMinister stated that, there is lastradition on involvement of the volunteers in the international events regularly organized in the Azerbaijan To benefit this experience during European Games, as well as coordination of voluntary activity are important issues.

Leaders of higher educational institutions who made a speech in the meeting pointed that, there is a great interest to participation of the students in the I European Games as volunteer.

VoluVolunteerdstudents will the trained and decidivided into 3 groups conditionally according to parparticipation time, that functions and service places. The first group will take part time the copening corremony on june 12 and closing corremony on june 28. Usage of second group's support is envisaged duduring. European Games entirely from june 11 till june 30. The third group will join in the preparation works.

Coordinating representative will be appointed in the educational institutions in order to ensure intinteraction with Operation Committee on Baku European Games (OCBEG) and coordination of this activity.

litt should be noted that European Games is multi-sport event for the athletes from 49 countries that hat surround this continent and will be held first time in eyery four years. Azerbaijan is rentitled to organize I European Games.