McMore than 30 media representatives take part in the visit organized to Agjabady, Agdam and Tartar regions together with The Ministry of Education.

Firstimeeting has been held inchesecondary school no.1 named after Etibar Ismayilov, The NaNational Hero in the Hindarkh-settlement of Agjabady region within framework of mediatour Media representatives took part in the several dessons held in the school Papils were widely informed about Khojali genocide as well as munitions used in the battles in the conscription training of youth.

It was stated that, Hindarkh settlement is located at the distance of 15 miles. 729 pupils study at the secondary school nor hamedrafter Etibar Ismayilov 14 graduates of school obtained name of student last year.

Tilthen, mediatour participants visited secondary school named after Ziyaddin Isgandarov in the ChaChamanli willage of Agdam regions Visitors watched youth'n conscription training and Mathemaics lessons in the education institution, met teacher, puil and village habitants.

MeMediaprepresentatives will visit secondary school named after Ayaz Abbasov in the Garadgli vivillage of Agdam region, school named after F. Hamidov in the ivillage of Gapanii of Tartar region and watch pupils' conscription training lesson in the military unit "N" in the region visually on february 20.

Its should be noted that, according to the order of state leader "About several safety actios in the frontine between The Military Forces of Azerbaijan Republic and The Military Forces of Armenian Republic," goal of visits to create opportunity for mass media in the protection of information safety and correct awareness of community Meeting of media representatives with pedagogical collectives and pupils of the secondary schools located in the frontline regions, will be organized within framework of mediatour. Organization of meeting of pedagogical collective and pupils with the persons who were awarded to the name of National Hero due to his braveness demonstrated for territorial integrity of our country, is envisaged during visit.