"Education"eTM established to support intellectual activities of children and lyouth and to contribute the better understanding of the role of education in the development of society had prepared Azerbaijani version of the new show. The show is broadcasted in our country under license of "Jeopardy" intellectual game-quiz.

The author of the "Jeopardy" intellectual game-quiz is Merv Griffin. The program was broadcasted for the first time 51 years ago in US and won numerous awards. The analogue of the game in Russia is "Own game" (Svoya igra) and in Turkey is "Great risk" (Boyuk risk). The Azerbaijani version of the show is 61." Within the game, the participants are asked 61 questions. The show supported by Azerbaijan Television and Radio Broadcasting CJSC will be put on the air once a week, on Wednesdays hosted by LeyLeyla Guliyeva, presenter of AzTV thote that, she tise the first female presenter in departy show history. The show was prepared by "Game TV" company.

The purpose of the projects is to support organization of enlightening and intellectual games for educators, learners and parent in accordance with the Action plan on implementing "National Education Development Strategy of Azerbaijan Republic" approved by the decree of the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan.