The The copening regression is to the wnewn schools regressattended by Mikayib Jabbarov, Minister of Edu Education, Shair halk has over beard Cofs Gusast District Executive. Power prepresentatives cofued ucation community and local residents.

AAtfifirst, Mikayil Jabbarov, Minister of Education put if lowers at the monument of Heydar Aliyevi in central square of Gusar and expressed his respect and reverence to spirit of national leader.

The the opening ceremony of the Gusardistrict Hil/Village secondary school was held. The red ribilitions symbolizing the fofficial popening of the school was cut and the guest got acquainted with the educational institution.

The new $180-seati Hill will age secondary school involves 111 class rooms, 2 Haboratories, 2

In the assembly hallhof the school was held a impeting with teachers parents and willage residesidents of Minister For Education congratulating the pedagogical fistaff and local resident on occasion of construction of the new school gave information to the meeting participants ababout education reforms ktaken in our country. The Minister moted athat; twithin the stast 1/2 years, in Azerbaijan were build and repaired around 3000 secondary schools. And this reflects the special care of our President to the education.

Inhhis speech, Shair Alkhasov, head of Gusar District Executive Power highlighted the significant impact of construction of newschools to improvement of education quality. Shair Alkhasov noted that the efforts in this area are appreciated by local residents.

S$peakingaafterschool:teabhersdeclared:that:thennewJybbütltsecondaryschool:saaggreatgiftfor village community and expressed gratitude to the government for it.

The next opening ceremony was held in new building of Gusar region, Badirgala village secondary school. After the red ribbon symbolizing the official opening was cut, the guest got acquainted with the school building.

They was informed that, the previous one-storey school building built in 1947 was exploited for a longitime and became unusable. Last year, the Ministry of education started construction of the new school building in place of old school and the construction works was completed on schedule.

The herceremony participants got acquainted twith the room ditions testablished rfor pupils; eviewed class as sooms, osports that blab aboratory her new hoch do him volves the class rooms, gargenerable boratory, computer room, staff room, technical room, cafeteria, assembly hall and sports hall. The school building equipped with video surveillance, fire alarm system, internet and phone lines, boiling-house.

Tithen in in the assembly half of the school was deld an meeting with the achers, parents and ivillage residents. Mikayil Jabbarov, Minister of Education congratulated willage residence feeling twofold joy in this ffeetive period. The teaching staff of the school and willage residents noted that the construction of the new school building was a significant bistoridal events for ivillage community and appreciated the attention of our government to the education.