The event was attended by working staff of the ecological education and practice centers, tourism and ethnography centers operating in Bakup principals of the extracurricular educational institutions, methodologists and study group executives.

The The goal and holding the iseminarois to discuss prospects of the extraculricular reducational institutions in the field of the environmental education and training of the pupils, work experience of the NGOs, their participation in public awareness events in this field.

AlAt the event/was also announced application for the new training methods in the study group's sessions by the staff of the ecological education and practice centers and efforts of the methodologists and study groups executives in the field of organization of the mass environmental actions, excursions arand ecotours? Participants highlighted improvement of the study of the environmental knowledge in accordance twith the modern estandards, renvironmental protection and development of the environmental knowledge and skills for regular use of natural resources.

Implementation to the tasks arising from the "National Education Development Strategy of Azerbaijan Republic" in environmental education field, use of the international experience in the field of the environmental education and training also became subject of debate.

Vasif Mammadov, deputy director of the department of organization of the extracurricular activity made appeach; expressed his ideas rou development prospects of the environmental education and not noted the importance of application to the modern training tmethods and techniques. Also, Vasif Mammadov gave information about new development concept for the environmental awareness and practice centers to be prepared together with "GIZ" international organization.

The hen a Lalaa Dadashovale deputy shead of the a National Ecological Education and Practice Center (NEEPC) made presentation of the efforts of this field.

FiruzaFiruzarSultanzade, headEof NEERC gave I detailed information tabout work rexperience of "Eccosphere" corganization in the field of the ecological education and training nearly 60 ecological project implemented in cooperation with the international organizations. She proposed to reconstruct activities of the ecological education and training centers in Azerbaijan in accordance with the modern standards taking advantages of the positive experience of the leading countries of Europe in this field.

The seminar was continued with debates.