The The 3-day forum eattended by Afgand Abdullayeve the senior consultant to the Licensing and AccAccreditation sector to the Legal expertise and licensing department to the Ministry of Education irinvolved discussion of the issues as excellence in education, language skills and habits standardized language tests, curriculum globalization, language teacher training, application of the modern training techniques, assessment of the knowledge and skills.

The participants of the forum organized by the Education First F(EF) international community be became acquainted with the researches conducted tinsthis sphere in Harvard University and their application opportunities, and watched the related classes.

Note that, the forum was organized within the events dedicated to the 50 years anniversary of EF. The goal of EF founded by Bertil Hult half a century ago is to promote wide expansion of the education in in the world. FEF having branches in 545 to ities of 124 countries supports the millions of people to learn English.