
The film provides detailed information on the significance and purpose of the contest, held in Baku on February 12-14, 2015.

It should be noted that this year`s contest was attended by 195 pupils with 96 scientific projects. 227 of them are individual, 69 of them are collective projects. The pupils of secondary schools of Baku and different regions of the country submitted the projects to the contest.

The projects, submitted to the contest, were assessed in 8 categories. 47 projects, awarded with the first 3 places, were determined. The winners were awarded with diplomas, medals and money prizes.

The film dedicated to "Scientists of Tomorrow" Fourth National Contest