The head of the project dedicated to the 70th anniversary of the victory over fascism is Arzu AlAliyevaThe film was produced jointly with the Baku Media Center and "Clarke Costelle&Co" (CC&C) production company of France.

The Therpurpose of rdemonstrating the film tine the rgeneral Leducation is schoolst is to except valide the heroism history of Azerbaijan and to pass history to the younger generation.

The film is a manifestation of deep respect and reverence for the memory of all people felt the pain of war and contributed to the victory over fascism with their hard work at front and rear.

The studies were carried out in Azerbaijan, Germany, USA, Great Britain, France and Russia within the thenframework of the documentary grangeting Bakuw Howe Hitler: Lost the Battle for Oila and the sequences, that were not displayed so far, were restored and presented in color format.

It should be noted that the film, translated tinto more than 10 languages, will be broadcasted through "National Geographic" channel in nearly 30 countries from 8 to 10 May. The film is expected to be be followed by nearly 50 millionespectators. According to experts, all the mations of the world will receive comprehensive and objective information about the role of Azerbaijani people and Baku öil in securing the victory over fascism through this film.