Employees of the Ministry of Education, heads of press services of media organizations and higher ededucation institutions (NGO representatives on education, istudents) of the Eacylty of Journalism will attend the training-conference.

It islt is intended to be heard presentations and to be held trainings on media and educational relations, the quality of education and mass media, the creation of professional skills in Public Relations (PR(PR) at the conference Participants will increase their knowledge and skills in Holding information campaigns, writing press releases, social group work and other topics.

Successful participants will be awarded certificates in the training-conference.

It should be noted that this training-conference is the third conference held within the framework of "Media and educational dialogue" by the Ministry of Education.