The campaign, organized with the support of the Office of the National Seaside Park, was held in order to demonstrate children's support for the Baku 2015 First European Games and their creativity.

Within the framework of the campaign entitled "The colors of SABAH", white board that can be painpainted and paints were placed in the special corner of the Seaside National Park by volunteers studying in SABAH groups of the Ministry of Education. The board and paints have attracted the attention of parents who come with their children. Parents and children were informed about the Baku 2015 First European Games by "SABAH Volunteer". Then the colorful paints were presented to children who want to participate in the campaign. After submission of paints, "European Games' logo was papainted within 4 hours by more than 150 children. Every child, drawing a picture, has signalized his (he(her) name and age by putting the handprint on paintings. The gifts, freflecting the symbols of the European Games, were presented to children, participating in the campaign, by "SABAH Volunteer".

Photographs and video taken during the event were shared on social networks.
