Th The presentation awas organized/ by jNijat Bakhshaliyev studying at University College London within the framework of the State Program on Education Abroad. The event was attended by our fellow countrymen and students from Great Britain, France and Italy.

Prior to the presentation, the European Games posters were placed in College.

Duburing the presentation, the participants were informed about the Baku 2015 First European GaGames considered one of the most significant events in Europe. It was noted that more than 6200 athletes from 50 European countries would compete for medals in the First European Games to be held irin Baku the was also reported that 253 competitions would be held in a total of 20 sports; including 16 OQlympic sports and 4 non-Olympic sports during the Games and this information was met/with great interest by the participants.

D During the presentation, the photographs about sports arena that will host the Games and the video clip made on the European Games were brought to the attention of the participants.