Foreign students of ASEU will have the opportunity to join the dual diplomar program between ASEU and the University of London. Thus, foreign students will be able to obtain the bachelor's degree diploma of both ASEU and the University of London.

Foreign students, who will participate in the program, will receive education on the basis of the culcurriculum of the University of London and will be lable to use educational resources of prestigious educational institution. During the study period, students will have the opportunity to participate in the Summer School operating in the campus of the London School of Economics in London.